The Orange County Jewish Community is committed to increasing awareness, resources, and events, and decreasing stigma, by collaboratively addressing addiction and recovery across the Jewish spectrum. Our Serenity Shabbat program is now in its fourth year.

Serenity Shabbat is a program developed by Jewish Addiction Awareness Network (JAAN). JAAN works with clergy, community organizations and leaders, families, and individuals across the United States crafting innovative programs focused on education, advocacy, stigma reduction, and supporting those in crisis.

JAAN's comprehensive resource website is a place for information and connection, featuring many voices sharing Jewish perspectives on addiction and recovery. www.jaanetwork.org
